

Assessment Criteria

Activity 1.

- explore ways in which software, hardware, data connections and networks can meet the needs of the company and its stakeholders (A)
- explore the impact of IT infrastructure on the company and its stakeholders (A)
- provide justified recommendations for an IT infrastructure solution for the company. (A)

Activity 2.

Analyzing how data and information can be used to meet the needs of Berimbolo Security and its stakeholders.

The report should consider:

- internal and external uses of data and information (B)
- how and why Berimbolo Security will make use of data and information (internally and externally) (B)
- ways in which information technology can support the use of data and information
- ways in which online communities can support the use of data and information
- ways in which data can be used and manipulated. (B)

Activity 3. (Usage Access Policy)

Produce policy documents for Berimbolo Security, detailing how the company's staff should make use of IT so that they operate in a legal, moral, ethical and safe manner.

The policies should cover issues associated with Berimbolo Security's use of IT and how these can be addressed, including:

- defining potential threats to data, information and systems
- exploring processes and procedures that should be put in place by the organization to protect data
- exploring moral and ethical issues
- legal issues associated with the use of IT
- relevant professional guidelines and codes of practice
- managing infrastructure, data, information and users. (C)

Activity 4.

Produce a report that

- considers alternative ways that data and information could have been used and communicated (C)
- explores the impact on the company and its stakeholders of
 - o internal and external threats
 - o ways of mitigating threats
 - o procedures for working in a legal and ethical way (C)
- provides detailed and supported evaluation of the impact the use of both data and information on
 - o the company
 - o the company's stakeholders
 - o policies to be implemented (B)
- provides a supported justification of any decisions you made when developing policies. (C)

Yellow – Pass

Light Green – Merit

Turquoise (Greenish-Blue) – Distinction